Q. Does the cover page and any dividers count towards the 20 page limit?

A. The cover page and dividers do not count towards the 20 page limit.

Q. Can the 20 pages be front and back or do they need to be single sided?

A. The 20 pages can be front and back as long as they are numbered on both sides.

Q. Does the sheet that was included with the RFP that is required with the proposal count towards the 20 page limit?

A. The sheet that was included with the RFP that is required does not count towards the 20 pages.

Q. Is there a percentage system for how the proposal will be graded that you could send us?

A. A percentage system will be developed during the short list stage of the proposal.

Q. Are proposers allowed to insert additional information (e.g., key personnel resumes, detailed reference project descriptions, etc.) into an appendix to the proposal that will not count towards the 20-page maximum limit?

A. No. Proposers will have the opportunity to present this information during the presentation phase of the process.

Q. Do proposers need to be registered vendors with Aiken County, or register later before doing business with the County?

A. No. You do not have to be a registered vendor with Aiken County to submit a RFQ. But must be register prior to doing business with Aiken County.
